

The future of food - the future of biodiversity?

A major symposium on the global impacts of UK food consumption
21-22 October 2015, Zoological Society of London

Register now: www.zsl.org/science/whats-on/the-future-of-food-the-future-of-biodiversity

The symposium will open with:

Sir John Beddington FRS, ZSL President and former Chief Scientific Advisor to the Government
Professor Tim Benton, the UK's Global Food Security Champion
Wayne Powell, CGIAR Consortium

Food production and biodiversity conservation are in conflict. Join experts and leading voices from farmer's groups, food suppliers, major retailers, conservationists, scientists, NGOs and policy-makers to debate sustainable solutions to the growing challenge of balancing food security and environmental protection.

View full programme online

Speakers include

Darrel Webber, Secretary General of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil
Guy Smith, Vice President of the National Farmer's Union
Tim Lang, Centre for Food Policy at City University
Patrick Holden CBE, Founder of the Sustainable Food Trust
Craig Sams, Founder of Green&Blacks chocolate
Richard Mithen, Interim Director of the Institute for Food Research
Allan Buckwell, Institute for European Environmental Policy
Glyn Davies, Director of Programmes at WWF
Tara Garnett, Founder of the Food Climate Research Network
Plus representatives from Waitrose, Sainsbury's and Tesco and DEFRA

Places are limited. Early booking is recommended.

For more information contact Jennifer Howes scientific.events@zsl.org or 020 7449 6227

Please forward to colleagues who may be interested in attending.